IN BETWEEN:

EVENTBUDDY, LDA, company headquartered in Rua Bento de Jesus Caraça 17, 1945-686 Oeiras, legal person 514 946 970, in this act represented by José Palma, managing partner, henceforth EVENTBUDDY.

AND,

_____, Individual (VAT) _____,
resident at _____, henceforth CUSTOMER.

Is granted the current “ SERVICE AGREEMENT WITH CUSTOMER FOR TICKET SALE “, what they do under the following terms and clauses:

1) -Definitions

For a better understanding of the content and scope of this contract, both parties agree to adopt the following definitions:

- a) - Eventbuddy, Lda: The entity, with the taxpayer number 514946970, which offers its ticketing service under the name “Eventbuddy”, and, established in Lisbon.
- b) - Customer: The event organizer.
- c) - Ticket service platform: the app SaaS (Software as a Service) developed by Eventbuddy where the User can purchase ticket(s) through Eventbuddy as an intermediary for the Customer, including web and mobile applications.
- d) - Contract: The agreement made between the Customer and Eventbuddy regarding the use of the Ticket Service Platform.
- e) - Contract: Ticket(s): The entry ticket to an event organized by or on behalf of the Customer that is sold by Eventbuddy to the User through the Ticketing Services Platform.
- f) - User: The person and/or legal entity using the Ticket Service Platform to purchase Ticket(s) from Eventbuddy for an event organized by or on behalf of the Customer.
- g) - Services: Refers to the functionality of the Software, the Site, customer support, and customization of the Software or other services provided by Eventbuddy.

2 - Applicability of the Customer Agreement

2.1 Accepting an offer from Eventbuddy confirms that you accept this Customer Agreement.

2.2 Customer terms and conditions such as the terms and conditions of an event location owner may apply to this agreement. In the event of a conflict between the conditions of various terms and conditions and this Customer Agreement, the conditions of this Customer Agreement prevail.

2.3 Deviations from the conditions in this Customer Agreement are only possible in writing; in that case, the other conditions remain fully in effect.

2.4 This Customer Agreement also applies to the performance of contracts with Eventbuddy, where third parties must be involved by, or on behalf of, Eventbuddy.

3 - Pre-contractual stage

3.1 All offers issued by Eventbuddy or any offers made of any kind will be valid for a maximum period of 30 days. After this period, the counterparty can invoke the proposal (offer). Eventbuddy is not bound by this proposal (offer) by the counterparty if it appears or should be apparent that this proposal or offer made in whole or in part contains an obvious error or mistake.

4 - Ticket service platform

4.1 The Ticket Service Platform ensures that the Ticket(s) for an event organized by the Customer will be offered by Eventbuddy to Users through the Ticket Service Platform. Furthermore, the Ticket Service Platform ensures that by-products can be offered to Users. When a User purchases a ticket through the Customer's ticket service Platform, a remote contract is made between the User and the Customer, substantiated by the payment and issuance of tickets. The Customer organizes the event at its own risk.

4.2 Eventbuddy provides the Ticket Service Platform as a SaaS service to Customer and User. The Customer is not permitted to let third parties use the services provided by Eventbuddy.

4.3 Eventbuddy provides Customer access to use the Ticket Service Platform if and to the extent necessary to fulfill the obligations included in the Agreement.

4.4 The Ticket Service Platform is - in part with the aim of maximizing the tickets to be sold - managed and maintained by Eventbuddy, at Eventbuddy's expense and, where necessary, improved in accordance with the requirements of proper functioning.

4.5 If applicable, Eventbuddy provides at its own discretion and if reasonably possible in accordance with the applicability of this Customer Agreement, new versions of the Ticket Service Platform to Customer.

4.6 The Ticket(s) are bought and sold through the Ticket Service Platform where the User acts as the buyer and the Customer as the exclusive seller of the Ticket(s), that is.

5 - Payments for tickets

5.1 All payments by the User in connection with the sale of Tickets through the Ticket Service Platform - based on an authorization by the Customer to Eventbuddy as a result of an Agreement entered into - are made to an Eventbuddy bank account.

5.2 Payments made by Users and received by Eventbuddy into the bank account referred to in article 5.1 are - with deduction of the amount agreed with the Customer as referred to in article 7 of this Customer Agreement - transferred to the Customer to a bank account to be specified by the Customer, following a withdrawal request made by the Customer, just, after the event has occurred successfully and, just, after Eventbuddy has received payment from the payment processor.

5.3 The Customer guarantees to Eventbuddy that the General Terms and Conditions of the tickets are accepted by the User.

5.4 Ticket Cancellation - Eventbuddy is subject to the laws and regulations regarding purchase cancellations, and the User has the right to request the cancellation of a purchase and receive a refund whenever the request complies with relevant laws and regulations, and the Customer approves such refunds.

6 - Invoicing

6.1 Within the scope of this contract, the Customer will exclusively hold all invoicing rights, which will be invoiced on behalf of the Customer, with the possibility for Eventbuddy to intermediate in such transaction.

6.2 In order for the Customer to issue the invoice to the User, Eventbuddy makes available, on the platform, the necessary data of the User/Buyer, for consultation and issuance of the invoice by the Customer, with the Customer being fully responsible for the process, from the issuance to sending the invoice.

6.3 As an alternative to that referred to in 6.1 and 6.2 and, if previously agreed between Eventbuddy and the Customer, Eventbuddy provides a certified automatic invoicing service in electronic format, upon subscription by the Customer and charged according to previously approved amounts. By opting for this solution, the Customer transfers to Eventbuddy the right to intermediate the invoicing operation.

6.4 Payment for the automatic invoicing service is deducted monthly from the balance the Customer has with Eventbuddy. If the balance does not allow the payment of the automatic invoicing software, an invoice will be issued with the missing amount.

7 - Fees and Payments

7.1 Eventbuddy charges the following costs to the Customer:

a) The agreed commission, as well as the agreed services, for the use of the Ticket Service Platform:

a.1) the default fee is 5% + VAT on the ticket price, with a minimum of €0,25 + VAT, per ticket, plus payment processing, if applicable.

a.2) the commission for free ticket (free ticket means the ticket provided by the Customer at zero euros)

- The cost for a free ticket is €0,15 + VAT, per ticket.

b) the monthly subscription amount for the automatic invoicing service in electronic format, if subscribed by the Customer.

c) the withdrawal cost - The cost for withdrawal or transfer to a bank account in Portugal, in Euros, is 2.5 € and is deducted from the amount to be withdrawn.

d) other costs to be collected depend, among other things, on the level of service chosen by the Customer.

e) default costs and commissions are visible and described on the platform and may vary from time to time.

f) costs for additional services are agreed with the Customer in the contract.

7.2 Eventbuddy has the right - if there is a reason to do so - to adjust costs, provisionally. The Customer declares in advance to agree to a reasonable adjustment.

7.3 Payments for costs charged by Eventbuddy to the Customer are made as referred to in section 5.2 of this Customer Agreement. In the event that full or partial settlement is not possible, Eventbuddy will inform the customer. The Customer is then obliged to immediately pay the outstanding amount.

7.4 The costs charged are explicitly due to Eventbuddy if the Customer, for any reason, decides to fully or partially refund the costs of the User's Entry Ticket(s).

7.5 Eventbuddy reserves the right to create free tickets for the event as long as the maximum number of tickets is not exceeded. An absolute maximum of 2 (in words: two) tickets per event is applicable for this.

8 - Reports

Eventbuddy provides information and knowledge regarding Ticket(s) sales through the Eventbuddy website.

9 - Privacy and personal data

9.1 Because it is necessary for the performance of the contract, the Customer will inform Eventbuddy how the Customer will comply with its obligations based on the General Data Protection Regulation (known as GDPR/GDPR).

9.2 The Customer indemnifies Eventbuddy against claims from persons whose personal data is recorded or processed in the context of the register of persons which is maintained by the Customer, or for which the Customer, based on the GDPR, is otherwise the controller, unless the Customer proves that the facts on which the claim is based are attributable to Eventbuddy.

9.3 With regard to the processing of personal data, both the Customer and Eventbuddy are individual controllers; personal data are processed both within the organization itself and by the processors, with Users being the subject of the data, all of this as stipulated in the RGPD.

9.4 The responsibility for the personal data that is processed by the Customer using the Ticket service Platform, with the execution of the Agreement or other Eventbuddy service, rests entirely with the Customer. The Customer guarantees to Eventbuddy that the content, use and/or processing of personal data is not illegal and does not violate any third party rights. The Customer indemnifies Eventbuddy against any legal claim by a third party, for whatever reason, in connection with this personal data or the performance of the Agreement.

9.5 Eventbuddy processes personal data in accordance with the Eventbuddy privacy policy, which can be consulted on the Eventbuddy.pt website.

10 - Data provision (Company)

In order to be indicated by Eventbuddy, the Customer undertakes to promptly provide Eventbuddy with all information that Eventbuddy considers necessary for the optimal functioning of the Ticket Service Platform.

11 - Intellectual property

Both Eventbuddy and the Customer reserve all intellectual property rights in everything they post and/or are used and/or provided in connection with the performance of the Agreement. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing between the parties, there will be no transfer of intellectual property based on this Customer Agreement, or the terms of the Agreement.

12 - Indemnity

12.1 Customer indemnifies Eventbuddy against all third party claims for damage caused by Customer for providing incorrect or incomplete information.

12.2 Customer indemnifies Eventbuddy upon first claim if Eventbuddy is held liable in any way by or on behalf of User in connection with the content and/or proper or improper performance of an event; such as, for example, in case of cancellations, as well as the associated communication from the Customer to the User, or, for any other possible form of failure, and/or, unlawful actions of the Customer towards the User.

12.3 Eventbuddy is entitled to recover from the Customer all costs incurred in and out of court in connection with legal and/or financial disputes that have arisen between the User and the Customer.

13 - Responsibility

Eventbuddy cannot guarantee or warrant that the Services will meet your requirements or be available uninterrupted, secure or error-free. We will take the initiative to implement all reasonable measures to maintain the security and integrity of the Data provided by Users. Eventbuddy cannot and does not guarantee that its services are up 100% of the time.

Services may be down (i) for scheduled maintenance, (ii) due to force majeure, (iii) for specific Users due to account suspension or termination, (iiii) Internet problems outside Eventbuddy's area of influence, (iiiii) bugs in code, hardware, or services that have not been fixed.

13.1 Both parties are only liable to the extent that this appears outside the scope of this Customer Agreement.

13.2 Eventbuddy's liability for a failure for which it may be held liable in performing the Agreement will only arise if the Customer gives Eventbuddy written notice of breach as soon as possible, giving a reasonable period of time to resolve this fails and, if Eventbuddy fails to meet its obligations, after this period. All this does not affect the Customer's rights mentioned in point 13.1.

13.3 Eventbuddy's entire liability for a failure for which it may be liable to perform the Agreement, use the Ticket Service Platform, or any other legal basis, explicitly including any failure to perform anything that is warranted to be an agreed obligation to the Customer, is limited to direct damage compensation, at the maximum value of the price stipulated for the Contract. In no event will Eventbuddy's total liability, for direct damages and on any legal basis, exceed €2,000.

13.4 Eventbuddy is not liable for damages to the Customer, of any shape or size, due to refunds and/or claims – for whatever reason – from Users. The direct or indirect damages resulting from this are supported by the Customer. Eventbuddy has the right to settle refunds and/or claims with the Customer with respect to other current payments from Users.

13.5 Eventbuddy is only liable to the Customer for damages or losses as a result of the untimely or improper breach of the Contract, and/or other contractual obligations, to the extent that such damage is caused with intent, willful recklessness, or negligence. clear from Eventbuddy, or third parties involved by Eventbuddy.

13.6 Eventbuddy is not liable for indirect damages, consequential damages, lost profits, lost savings, reduced goodwill, damages caused by business stagnation, damages resulting from claims by Users against the Customer.

13.7 Eventbuddy is not responsible for damages that are the direct or indirect result of malfunctions or maintenance of the computers or (electronic) systems or mobile equipment you use.

13.8 Eventbuddy is not responsible for damages that are the direct or indirect results of the falsification of Ticket(s) by Users or third parties or any other type of improper or unlawful use of Tickets by Users or third parties.

13.9 The liability restrictions referred to in this Customer Agreement are also stipulated on behalf of third parties engaged by Eventbuddy, who may therefore have recourse to this liability restriction.

13.10 The condition of being entitled to any compensation for damages is always that the Customer must report the damages to the supplier in writing as soon as possible after the incident. Any claim for damages to Eventbuddy expires for the mere lapse of twenty-four months after the claim is filed, unless the Customer has initiated a legal claim for damages before this period expires.

14 - Termination

Termination is possible if:

- one of the parties is declared bankrupt; he was granted suspension of payment; is dissolved or liquidated; business operations are canceled or transferred abroad; or creditors have been offered and accepted a private settlement or other form of debt remediation.
- one of the parties, after written notice of default by registered mail, remains in default for more than seven days to perform its obligations under the Contract;
- the Customer uses the Ticket service Platform for any purpose other than which Eventbuddy has provided the Ticket service to the Customer in accordance with the agreements made;
- the Customer, himself or with the help of third parties, tries in any way to implement changes to the Ticket service Platform;

- the Ticket Service Platform is used directly or indirectly by the Customer to enter into agreements with users who, due to their content or scope, are in breach of the law, good ethics or public order, or agreements that, due to the content or scope, qualify as offensive or fraudulent.

15 - Force Majeure

15.1 In a situation of force majeure - which means that there is a breach by one of the parties that cannot be attributed to the party itself, because it is not through its fault, nor due to law, legal act or general acceptance, that the situation is characterized - and, whose situation of force majeure lasts for more than 14 days, both parties have the right to dissolve the Contract, without any obligation to pay compensation for damages.

15.2 The parties agree, in any case, that there will be no case of force majeure under the terms of article 14.1, in the following cases:

- in the event of a failure or delay in performance - other than intentional or deliberate carelessness on the part of Eventbuddy - due to the destruction, in any way, of servers, backups and other equipment used by Eventbuddy, as well as telephone and traffic malfunctions of internet;
- in the event of failure or delay in Eventbuddy's performance as a result of sabotage - with or without terrorist intent - of third parties, including actions by so-called "hackers" and/or "crackers".

16 - Acceptable Use Policy

16.1 Customer agrees that it will not misuse the Eventbuddy platform. Misuse is any use, access to or interference with the Platform contrary to the Terms, Privacy Policy and applicable laws and regulations. Eventbuddy may, in its sole discretion, suspend or terminate access to all or only part of the Platform to any User or Customer, without prior notice or need to deliberate on reasons for doing so.

Eventbuddy reserves the right to deny service to any person or entity at any time.

Customer agrees that while using the Ticket Service Platform, Customer will not behave contrary to the Terms, Policies, applicable laws and regulations, and in particular will not, without limitation, do any of the following:

- (i) send or post unauthorized commercial communications (such as spam) through the Platform;
